FIVE GUYS TO OPEN AT GITTINGS MARKETPLACE IN BALTIMORE CITY

Baltimore, MD – Schwaber Holdings, a Baltimore-based commercial real estate investment, development, and management company, announced today that Five Guys, a national hamburger franchise, will open in Baltimore City at Gittings Marketplace located at 6300 York Road just south of Towson University. The 3,200 square foot restaurant will open later this year.

Five Guys was founded in northern Virginia in the 1980's and has become a popular franchise in the restaurant industry. Five Guys has more than 1,500 franchises worldwide.

“Five Guys is a welcome addition to Gittings Marketplace offering another great dining choice for guests frequenting the neighborhood center,” said Mark Renbaum, CEO of Schwaber Holdings. “Our goal is to offer the community the best options to meet all of their dining and entertainment needs. And we are so confident that Five Guys will do just that - after all, who doesn't enjoy a delicious burger and fries?”
